

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Buy the New Home. W. R. Jackson. Fresh stock of Lowney's fine candies just in at Faber Bros.

The celebrated New Home sewing machine at W. R. Jackson's.

Leave your old shoes at Hendry & Penney's. B. L. Baldwin will repair them.

The board of county commissioners and the school board will be in session next week.

Go to the Atlantic hotel for a good meal when you visit the county seat. There is none better.

Judge and Mrs. A. D. Penney spent Sunday in Sebastian, where Mr. Penney conducted religious services Sunday afternoon.

Contractor J. A. Franklin and little son left yesterday for a few days visit at his former home, Mount Dora, in Lake county.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. George expect to leave the first of next week for a visit of several months with friends and relatives in Arkansas.

Postal cards from C. C. Boykin inform us that he is on his way to the Jamestown exposition, where he expects to spend the summer.

Miss Maude Miller, of Eden, came up Tuesday, bringing little Miss Margaret Campbell, who has been visiting relatives in Eden for several days.

H. W. Michael, a former resident of Fort Pierce, is now manager of the Lorraine Hardware Co., at Live Oak. His numerous friends here wish him success.

Miss L. P. Moore, who taught the public school at Viking during the past term, and who has recently been taking teacher's course at DeLand, has returned to her home at Merritt.

Quite a party from Fort Pierce went on a launch to Jensen last Saturday night to attend and participate in the concert and comedy entertainment at the hall, returning by moonlight.

Wilson Godfrey, Paul Watkins, and Jerry Saunders and Misses Annie Leitch, Ruth Alderman, Mattie Saxton, and an Alderman were a party that spent Sunday afternoon on the Atlantic beach.

Herman Bentel, the enterprising owner of Stuart, is a regular visitor to Fort Pierce, coming up to spend Sunday with his family who have been at the home of Mrs. Bentel's mother for several weeks.

C. K. Durkee, the painter, since the departure of his wife for their former home in Knoxville, Tenn., has moved his pineapple farm at Gomez, where he will stay until after the pineapple harvest is over.

THE TRIBUNE is indebted to Theodore Ruse, a former resident of White City, for a copy of the "Shriner" edition of the Los Angeles Times, which was issued at the time of the recent convocation of Shriners in that city.

Mrs. L. G. Leslie and Tom D. Leslie, brother and brother of Mrs. W. E. Leslie, arrived in town Monday morning for a short visit at the Tedder home. Mrs. Tedder will return with them to Madison for a visit of two months.

Alfred Newlander, civil engineer for the Florida East Coast railroad, who has had charge of the engineering problems in the construction of the drainage canal west of Fort Pierce, left Wednesday for West Palm Beach, where he will be in charge of drainage operations at that point.

Service in St. Andrew's Episcopal church Sunday. Rev. Dr. Moore will officiate. Holy Communion at 7 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon on the unity—One in three and three in one—"How can that be", at 11 a. m.; Sunday School at 10 a. m., W. T. Carbin, superintendent; evening service 7.30, theme—"A Vision Appeared to Paul in the Night." Seats are free, every one welcome.

The Woodmen of the World are planning to have a big celebration in honor of the anniversary of the order on June 1. A splendid program of music, speeches and songs is being arranged, and also a fine lunch and ice cream will be provided. The attendance is limited to members of the order, their wives and children, the young member and his girl, the newly elected candidates, their wives and children and visiting foreigners. Tickets, $1 for each family above, can be obtained of H. B. Paxton, chairman of committee, who would be glad if all who intend to be present will apply at once so that arrangements may be made to take care of all.

Durkee & Goodwin house painters.

Buy the New Home. W. R. Jackson. Two kinds of ice cream every day at Faber Bros.

Those delicious fresh crushed fruit sundaes at Faber Bros. every day.

Mrs. W. N. Hendry has returned from her visit to relatives and friends in Titusville.

J. S. Keen went down to Stuart Sunday night, where he is assisting Contractor Brewer.

The "Want" column is full of bargains. If you see nothing that you want, try an ad for yourself.

Dr. E. E. Rollins will return tonight from his visit to Charlotte, N. C., where he was called last week.

We would call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of the Armour Fertilizers on page 3 of this issue.

Mrs. R. L. Beville and daughter, Miss Lorraine, of Stuart, were in town Saturday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. J. George.

Pineapples are now going forward in a lively rate, ten to twelve cars going forward every day, and the amount increases daily.

The Indian River & Lake Worth Fish Co., are building an office and packing house on their new dock, just south of Cobb's dock.

D. B. Sheffield and son, D. L. Sheffield, and daughter, Mrs. Debbie Sutton of Narrows, are now residents of Fort Pierce, and reside on Orange avenue.

The attention of pineapple growers is called to the quotations in the ad. of the Indian River & Lake Worth Pineapple Growers' Association on page 8.

Fort Pierce has been crowded the past week with representatives of various commission houses who are either seeking consignments or are buying pineapples.

Mrs. A. B. Brown returned last evening from a visit of several weeks with her parents at Alachua. She was accompanied on her return by her sister, Miss Mable Cato.

Dr. H. S. Greer, a veterinary surgeon of Macon, Ga., is spending several days in this section with a view to locating here. The Doctor is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Philo C. Eldred.

Master Wadsworth Trowell had the time of his life last Friday afternoon. The occasion was his fourth birthday anniversary, and about fifteen of his young friends helped him celebrate the event.

Miss Florence Brewer returned to Fort Pierce Tuesday, and is again on THE TRIBUNE staff. Mrs. Brewer will return tomorrow and Mr. Brewer hopes to finish up his work at Stuart within the next ten days, when he will join his family here.

The first issue of the Florida Fruit Growers' Daily Telegraphic Report will appear tomorrow afternoon June 1st. The promoters of the paper are around the territory soliciting subscriptions to the journal. A great many growers have sent in their names to be enrolled as subscribers.

Capt. A. W. Buie, who is known to everyone along the Indian River, has established headquarters at the Spring Cottage during the pineapple harvest. Capt. Buie is representing the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway, and it is unnecessary to say that he will get his share of all western shipments.

Geo. W. Seammell, of Orange City, has located in Fort Pierce, and is stopping at the Riverview hotel. Mr. Seammell is an expert painter, and now has the contract for painting the Budd cottages. He contemplates buying property and locating here with his granddaughter, Miss Mattie Saxon, one of THE TRIBUNE staff.

O. O. Poppleton, the bee expert of Stuart, was in town Monday, and again visited the peninsula opposite Fort Pierce with a view to bringing his bees here for the summer. Mr. Poppleton finds that the mangrove promises a fair pasturage for his bees, and will move about one hundred colonies here within the next two weeks.

J. M. Sample, of Bristol, Va., a brother of A. M. Sample, of Fort Pierce, arrived in town Tuesday for a short visit. Mr. Sample is president of the Peninsula Fruit Corporation, incorporated under the laws of the State of Virginia. This company has acquired extensive holdings at West Pompano, and will engage in the pineapple business on a large scale, planting about thirty acres this season. The entire company is composed of citizens of Virginia.

Shoes

Dry Goods

Ladies' and Gents'

Furnishings

Millinery

Stationery and Toilet Articles

Our Stock in all Lines is being Constantly Replenished and Our Prices Are Right.

We are Agents for Butterick's Patterns and the Delineator, Standard Sewing Machines, Thompson's Glovefitting Corsets.

W. J. NESBITT,

Always glad to hear from you.
Phone No. 14.

Fort Pierce.

Cooling Hardware

for

Hot Weather

Refrigerators and Ice Chests—Sheet Steel and Wood.

Ice Cream Freezers—All sizes in two grades.

Water Coolers—Sheet Steel and Fiber.

Ice Tools—Saws, Tongs, Picks, Shaves.

Carpet Sweepers, Asbestos Lined Sad Irons, 1900 Washing Machines—All

Labor Savers and especially suitable for hot weather.

The Fee & Stewart Co.

Hardware and Undertaking

Fort Pierce, Florida

For Sale

1 1/2-ft. Log Cart, dogs, 2 chains, $25
Wood Mill, Steam Engine and
Boiler, Cross-cut Saw, Circular
Saw, Wood Splitter, Wood
Conveyer, Mill Shed, 2 Lot,
50x100 ft. each, $800.

About 100 Strands Wood—pine,
spruce, liveoak, hickory, mangrove, ash and lightwood on hand.

Everything in good order.
Terms Cash, or part cash with security.

H. B. Paxton.

An appeal to all Southerners briefly to stop business and all moving wheels at 2 p. m., June 1, the movement of the unveiling of the Jefferson Davis statue at the Richmond reunion of Confederate veterans, has been issued by Gen. Lee, commanding the veterans.

Two Dozen Men's
$4 Patent Leather
Shoes Now $2.50

Two Dozen Men's
Vici Kid $3.50
Shoes now $2.50

Send cash with order. Money back
if not satisfactory.

All Postpaid.
F. Charles Gifford,
Vero, Fla.

Surprising
Success

Has followed the efforts of the proprietors of the

Trowell Drug
Company

In giving the people of Fort Pierce and St. Lucie County good service in a first-class drug store.

Call on them and give them your mail orders.

CITY MARKET

John Carlile, Manager.

Florida & Western Meats

We have discontinued using the stall fed beef and can now supply our customers with Florida and Western Beef and Pork at the old prices. Chickens, Eggs, Mutton every Friday and Saturday.

Phone 183

The Tribune Does Neat Job Work.